

To: Wise, Robert[Wise.Robert@epa.gov]
Cc: Foster, Althea[Foster.Althea@epa.gov]; Rinehart, Jon[rinehart.jon@epa.gov]
From: Hayes, Mark
Sent: Sun 8/9/2015 9:35:48 PM
Subject: FW: Number of Cattle and Horses

fyi

From: Rinehart, Jon
Sent: Sunday, August 09, 2015 4:29 PM
To: Hayes, Mark; Foster, Althea; Martin, John
Subject: FW: Number of Cattle and Horses

Sent from my Windows Phone

---

From: Hopkins, Bonnie
Sent: 8/9/2015 3:24 PM
To: Rinehart, Jon
Subject: RE: Number of Cattle and Horses

That is for the entire county. I don't have specific details on the number along the river, but because we are so rural, nearly all of them utilize the river or well water for drinking purposes.

Bonnie Hopkins

Agriculture Extension Agent

New Mexico State University

San Juan County

505-334-9496 office

505-801-1176 cell

bhopkins@nmsu.edu

From: Rinehart, Jon [<mailto:rinehart.jon@epa.gov>]
Sent: Sunday, August 09, 2015 3:20 PM
To: bhopkins@nmsu.edu
Subject: Number of Cattle and Horses

Bonnie

The number of 50-60,000 cattle and horses that you mentioned, Is that for the whole county or would that ranches along the San Juan and Animas River?

Thanks

Jon